

OUR LADY OF RANSOM

29th Sunday of the Year – Year A – Divine Office Wk 1

17th / 18th October 2020

Louis XIV never wore gloves, even in the coldest weather. Watching him ride past; two French peasants expressed surprise. “His hands must be freezing”, said one. “No”, the other replied, “because he’s always got his hands in our pockets”.

Does Caesar have his hands in Jewish pockets? The people try to trap Jesus with an answer. Whichever way Jesus answers, it appears he will be condemned by one of the opposing groups. Yet this doesn’t happen. Why?

Because Jesus does not present Caesar and God as two independent authorities. Caesar does not possess anything independently of God. Jesus does not need to specify what belongs to God, since everything does. These are not two independent or parallel spheres of power and duty. God has dominion over all creation, and yes, Caesar has power, but only relative power, it will only go so far.

When we go to see professionals –be they doctors, lawyers, police, teachers etc., assuming they are all working with integrity and truth, and as good as they are, we know that their remit still only goes so far. Like Caesar’s. They are not in opposition to God, but their expertise is still only goes so far. It is relative to God’s power.

At its most basic level, we may define politics as what we do and decide publicly, with all the public ramifications of what we do. And spiritually, we ask the question why we do what we do, what our true motivations, energies, incentives may be. Religion and politics must be one, they feed each other. Separate them, as we see in our world today, and they are both corrupted. Naturally.

Politics becomes the external expression of what is already happening in our hearts. We see why politics and faith must be one if truth and integrity are to flourish. They feed each other.

Human power exists only in subservience to God’s supreme power. Not independently of, even if the powerful think so. And that power must be expressed through a healthy spiritual disposition. Or we pay a terrible price - spiritually and politically. But before we criticise, we ask the question of ourselves: do our decisions and external behaviours reflect what is truly going on in our hearts?

God Bless, Fr. Paul.

Please note that School Applications (together with the Certificate of Catholic Practice, where required) need to be submitted by the 31 October 2020 (for secondary transfer) and 15 January 2021 (for applications to primary school).

The current Guidance to Clergy on issuing Certificates already contains a reasonable amount of flexibility to allow clergy to exercise proper pastoral judgment in each case, taking into account all of the circumstances. The extraordinary situation we all find ourselves in this year will form part of the circumstances of each case. Ultimately, the priest is being asked to do no more than certify whether or not the child comes from a practising Catholic family to the best of his knowledge and belief, in all the circumstances.

Meetings for Prospective Parents - September 2021 Admissions

READINGS AT MASS – 29th SUNDAY OF THE YEAR

First reading – Isaiah 45:1, 4-6

I have taken Cyrus by his right hand to subdue nations before him

Thus says the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whom he has taken by his right hand to subdue nations before him and strip the loins of kings, to force gateways before him that their gates be closed no more: 'It is for the sake of my servant Jacob, of Israel my chosen one, that I have called you by your name, conferring a title though you do not know me. I am the Lord, unrivalled; there is no other God besides me. Though you do not know me, I arm you that men may know from the rising to the setting of the sun that, apart from me, all is nothing.'

---

Psalm 95

Give the Lord glory and praise.

1. O sing a new song to the Lord,
sing to the Lord all the earth.
Tell among the nations his glory
and his wonders among all the peoples. (R.)
  2. The Lord is great and worthy of praise,
to be feared above all gods;
the gods of the heathens are naught.
It was the Lord who made the heavens. (R.)
  3. Give the Lord, you families of peoples, give the Lord glory and power.
give the Lord the glory of his name,
Bring an offering and enter his courts. (R.)
  4. Worship the Lord in his temple,
O earth, tremble before him.
Proclaim to the nations: "God is king."
He will judge the people in fairness. (R.)

Second reading - 1 Thessalonians 1:1-5

We constantly remember your faith, your love and your hope

From Paul, Silvanus and Timothy, to the Church in Thessalonika which is in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; wishing you grace and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We always mention you in our prayers and thank God for you all, and constantly remember before God our Father how you have shown your faith in action, worked for love and persevered through hope, in our Lord Jesus Christ.

We know, brothers, that God loves you and that you have been chosen, because when we brought the Good News to you, it came to you not only as words, but as power and as the Holy Spirit and as utter conviction.

Alleluia, alleluia!
Your word is truth, O Lord:
consecrate us in the truth.
Alleluia!

Gospel - Matthew 22:15-21

Give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar

The Pharisees went away to work out between them how to trap Jesus in what he said. And they sent their disciples to him, together with the Herodians, to say, 'Master, we know that you are an honest man and teach the way of God in an honest way, and that you are not afraid of anyone, because a man's rank means nothing to you. Tell us your opinion, then. Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not?' But Jesus was aware of their malice and replied, 'You hypocrites! Why do you set this trap for me? Let me see the money you pay the tax with.' They handed him a denarius, and he said, 'Whose head is this? Whose name?' 'Caesar's' they replied. He then said to them, 'Very well, give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar— and to God what belongs to God.'
