

OUR LADY OF RANSOM

Fourth Sunday of Advent – Year B –
Divine Office Wk 4 – 19th / 20th December 2020

A BIG and WARM welcome with open arms to all our guests, visitors and regular parishioners. Please feel welcomed. This week, let me offer a few thoughts on the importance of honouring Mary, Mother of God.....

Mary offers turtle-doves at the Presentation, a sign of her poverty, a poverty which signifies there was little to come between her and God. She radically let go of her own agendas (eg. marriage preparations) to do as God asks. Wow!

Today, she shows herself to be a real contemplative – listening and focussed on the angel. Immediately after, she shows herself to be a woman of the world, active and practical – visiting and helping her cousin Elizabeth. A real active contemplative.

Which tells us she absolutely knew it was THY kingdom come; for many it is 'my' kingdom come. So much about me, myself and I. The opposite for Mary.

She will have known that, in all our unworthiness before God, it is God who makes us totally worthy- it is all gift. We don't earn God's love, we can't manipulate or manage God, we allow God in it by letting go of our own agendas. She knew that we are not good from our own merits, we're good because God is good and loves us first. God loves us so we can be good, not if we're good.

Her interior life must have been extraordinary. Consider; after today's Angel Gabriel revelation, she never needs to check with any authority, she goes forward with extraordinary faith. A faith which strengthens her against scandal, gossip and potential punishment through torture because she is made pregnant by 'another'.

So when we say 'Hail Mary', she's not half or quarter full of grace, but truly FULL of grace. Yes, we honour her, following her supreme example, by letting go of our own agendas, so her Son can come in, and bring us his peace and strength.

May I wish you all every blessing for a very happy and peaceful Christmas, and all peace and good for the New Year.

God Bless, Fr. Paul.

SEA SUNDAY

Sunday 20th December is Sea Sunday, when the Church prays for all those who live and work at sea. Without them, we would not have most of the items we buy in the shops.

For an appeal from Bishop Paul Mason, and a video showing some of what Stella Maris does, please visit www.stellamaris.org.uk/sea-sunday.

Sea Sunday has been moved from July because of the pandemic and Stella Maris is particularly asking for donations by text or online. To donate and for more information, please visit: www.stellamaris.org.uk/donate or text "SEA" to 70460 to donate £5. Stella Maris is dependent on voluntary donations, so please give generously. Thankyou.

✠ ✠ PLEASE REMEMBER IN YOUR PRAYERS...

Bill Hall (husband of Pat Hall who herself died just a few weeks ago) who died last week. Please keep Belinda and the family in your prayers

Also Bob Walker who died on Tuesday 24th November. His Requiem Mass (family and invited guests only) will be held at 11am on Tuesday, December 22, followed by burial at Hall Road Cemetery, Rochford. Please keep Joan and the family in your prayers.

May they rest in peace. ✠ ✠

MANY THANKS FOR ALL THE MASS INTENTIONS AND CONTRIBUTIONS

Please note: At present we have a large number of outstanding Mass Intentions, which takes us to early March.

PLEASE PRAY

For all the sick members of our Parish and all our relatives and friends.

✠ ANNIVERSARIES ✠

Kindly pray for Jean Stone, Frances Tibbs, Lorraine Elmer, Mike Geeson, and Connie Brilus whose anniversaries occur about this time.

SVP THANK YOU

At the start of the pandemic, our Conference, like many others, was fearful of how to attract donations to support its work when the church was in lockdown and, subsequently, operating at limited capacity. Our concerns proved unfounded as thoughtful parishioners have passed to us generous donations, occasionally extremely so. We have truly been overwhelmed by the extent of their generosity for which we are profoundly grateful. We wish our donors and all parishioners a happy and blessed Christmas and share with you our hope for better times to come in 2021.

Should you need support, please contact Colin Griffin (tel. No. 01268 772322) or any other SVP member. Your call will be treated with complete confidentiality.

CONFESSIONS

The Sacrament of Reconciliation (Confessions) is available – but needs to be offered openly (ie. not in the traditional Confessional Box). If you wish for the Sacrament, please make a personal time by calling Fr. Paul. (The request itself is treated confidentially).

Fr Paul will be available in Church for pre-Christmas Reconciliation on Monday 21st Dec. between 5.30 – 7.30pm and on Wednesday 23rd Dec. between 10.30am and 12.30pm. No need to book – just turn up. If no-one is in the church, please call at the presbytery.

FOODBANK - THANKS

Hopeworx would like to say a big thank you to everyone who has contributed towards the Christmas Hampers this year.

We have been overwhelmed by the generosity of local authorities, charities, churches, supermarkets and individuals in donations of both food and finance. This has enabled us to provide 110 hampers this year which have been distributed to those in need via our partners in agencies, charities and churches. This is a 57% increase on last year.

As well as 2 bags full of Christmas goodies, this year we have been able to also provide a monetary donation with each hamper.

It is great to see what can be done when the community works together.

NEWSLETTERS

Just a few printed newsletters will be left on the shelf outside the presbytery. These are primarily designated for anyone who has no email access.

If you are able to print off newsletters yourselves and deliver to anyone who can't get out, that would be a great act of charity. Thank you.

If you, or anyone you know, would like to receive the newsletter by email each week, please in the first instance email a request to the parish office (rayleigh@dioceseofbrentwood.org) and ask to be added onto the distribution list.

The newsletter will be emailed by the Saturday morning.

BEWARE OF VACCINATION SCAMS

With the rollout of the Covid-19 vaccine beginning this week, residents are warned of criminals seeking to exploit the pandemic further.

Fake Text Messages & Calls

Basildon has been one of the worst affected areas in Essex for Coronavirus and as a result, scammers have been targeting residents with fake text messages. Essex Trading Standards have warned that the messages ask residents to click a link in order to book their vaccination, before proceeding to take personal details and payment requests.

The Covid-19 vaccination is free and you will never be asked for payment.

In other parts of the country, people have also received phone calls to book non-existent 'vaccine appointments'. They are asked to confirm their booking by pressing a number on their phone which results in them being billed by their provider.

'VIP' vaccine tickets

Phishing scams continue to circulate, many now claiming to offer 'VIP' vaccination tickets that will allegedly put people at the head of the vaccination queue—for a price. Similar to the scams that have been seen throughout the pandemic, they will often ask you to click on a link or provide personal/banking details to pay for the ticket.

Remember—if it seems too good to be true, it probably is!

The vaccine is currently being offered to those most at risk, particularly the elderly.
Please pass this information on to anyone you think may be vulnerable to these scams.

If you or someone you know is vulnerable and has been a victim of fraud, please call Essex Police on 101

RESIDENTS WARNED OF FAKE BT CALLS

Residents are warned to be alert to a spate of calls claiming to be BT outreach that result in a computer takeover by the criminals.

Essex Police is aware of reports by residents that have received a call claiming to be from BT and stating that there is either an issue with the broadband in the area, or that the residents internet access is due to be cut off unless they follow the callers instructions.

The criminals use this cover in order to request that the resident downloads a program that will allow them access to the computer—this will allow them to remotely control the computer, meaning they are able to change passwords and view banking information.

When dealing with companies over the phone remember to Take Five:

- Stop - Taking a moment to stop and think before parting with your money or information could keep you safe.
- Challenge - Could it be fake? It's ok to reject, refuse or ignore any requests. Only criminals will try to rush or panic you
- Protect - Contact your bank immediately if you think you've fallen for a scam and report it to Action Fraud

If you want to check whether the call is genuine, remember to call back after five minutes or, if possible, on a different phone. Always use a trusted number, and not a number provided by the caller. A number of reports have stated that the caller has provided another fake number designed to continue the scam.

If you believe criminals have accessed your computer, take it to a trusted computer expert and explain the situation.

Then report to Action Fraud at www.actionfraud.police.uk

If you or someone you know is vulnerable and has been a victim of fraud, please call Essex Police on 101

READINGS AT MASS – FOURTH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

First reading – 2 Samuel 7:1-5,8-12,14,16

Your House and your sovereignty will always stand secure before me

Once David had settled into his house and the Lord had given him rest from all the enemies surrounding him, the king said to the prophet Nathan, 'Look, I am living in a house of cedar while the ark of God dwells in a tent.' Nathan said to the king, 'Go and do all that is in your mind, for the Lord is with you.'

But that very night the word of the Lord came to Nathan:

'Go and tell my servant David, "Thus the Lord speaks: Are you the man to build me a house to dwell in? I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep, to be leader of my people Israel; I have been with you on all your expeditions; I have cut off all your enemies before you. I will give you fame as great as the fame of the greatest on earth. I will provide a place for my people Israel; I will plant them there and they shall dwell in that place and never be disturbed again; nor shall the wicked continue to oppress them as they did, in the days when I appointed judges over my people Israel; I will give them rest from all their enemies. The Lord will make you great; the Lord will make you a House. And when your days are ended and you are laid to rest with your ancestors, I will preserve the offspring of your body after you and make his sovereignty secure. I will be a father to him and he a son to me; if he does evil, I will punish him with the rod such as men use, with strokes such as mankind gives. Your House and your sovereignty will always stand secure before me and your throne be established for ever.'"

Psalm 88

I will sing for ever of your love, O Lord.

1. I will sing for ever of your love, O Lord;
through all ages my mouth will proclaim your truth.
Of this I am sure, that your love lasts for ever,
that your truth is firmly established as the heavens.
(R.)
 2. "I have made a covenant with my chosen one;
I have sworn to David my servant:
I will establish your dynasty for ever
And will set up your throne through all ages" (R.)
 3. He will say to me: "You are my father,
my God, the rock who saves me."
I will keep my love for him always;
For him my covenant shall endure. (R.)

Second reading - Romans 16:25-27

The mystery is revealed that was kept secret for endless ages

Glory to him who is able to give you the strength to live according to the Good News I preach, and in which I proclaim Jesus Christ, the revelation of a mystery kept secret for endless ages, but now so clear that it must be broadcast to pagans everywhere to bring them to the obedience of faith. This is only what scripture has predicted, and it is all part of the way the eternal God wants things to be. He alone is wisdom; give glory therefore to him through Jesus Christ for ever and ever. Amen.

Alleluia, alleluia!
I am the handmaid of the Lord:
let what you have said be done to me.
Alleluia!

Gospel - Luke 1:26-38

'I am the handmaid of the Lord'

The angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, to a virgin betrothed to a man named Joseph, of the House of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. He went in and said to her, 'Rejoice, so highly favoured! The Lord is with you.' She was deeply disturbed by these words and asked herself what this greeting could mean, but the angel said to her, 'Mary, do not be afraid; you have won God's favour. Listen! You are to conceive and bear a son, and you must name him Jesus. He will be great and will be called Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give him the throne of his ancestor David; he will rule over the House of Jacob for ever and his reign will have no end.' Mary said to the angel, 'But how can this come about, since I am a virgin?' 'The Holy Spirit will come upon you' the angel answered 'and the power of the Most High will cover you with its shadow. And so the child will be holy and will be called Son of God. Know this too: your kinswoman Elizabeth has, in her old age, herself conceived a son, and she whom people called barren is now in her sixth month, for nothing is impossible to God.' 'I am the handmaid of the Lord,' said Mary 'let what you have said be done to me.' And the angel left her.
