

OUR LADY OF RANSOM

3rd Sunday of the Year – Year B –
Divine Office Wk 3 – 23rd / 24th January 2021

Christianity has not failed; it has never been properly tried. (G.K. Chesterton). I like your Christianity, I like your Christ, but I do not like your Christians as they do not follow your Christ. (Mahatma Ghandi). How true is this? How much of Jesus' good news is mis-used, abused and distorted for personal gain. When Jesus remains just words, instead of "word-become-flesh"; when Jesus is only argued about instead of truly followed; only arguing only about such things as Jesus' divinity, instead of sharing his humanity; when Jesus becomes a set of stifling rules instead of life itself – then don't be surprised if Ghandi's and Chesterton's words resonate with so many people in so many ways. And why so many can't be bothered.

Flower lovers – it is said that Christianity is like a rose. A rose has an imperceptible and quiet authority that comes from the fact it is beautiful and has a lovely fragrance. A rose does not need to prove itself or convert you to its side – it simply knows its own inherent beauty and truth – it is a rose. If we have a nose and eye for beauty we will recognise its inherent authority, its truth and beauty.

Maybe the first disciples had an eye and nose for truth, beauty, goodness and authority which they fairly quickly picked up in Jesus, so they followed him. Seeing Jesus and what he truly offers, would we not do the same?

A rose has an inherent beauty. A plastic rose – no. Pretence. Maybe Ghandi and Chesterton saw a plastic Christianity; fights over who has the correct ideas; or the real truth, or the right rules; or proper worship. Why fight over things that Jesus never stipulates? Can't Jesus be like the rose? He only ever speaks of "following him" - his way of life, his interior attitudes. How often does he ask us to worship him? Never. Yet if we prefer to just worship and not truly follow him, attitudes and behaviours will remain the same as everyone else's. That's cheap Christianity, an insulting plastic pretence, demanding very little, and converting no-one.

So stick with his truth, his attitudes, his forgiveness, his goodness and beauty, his justice, his peace, his non-violence, his freedom. That is the authentic Christianity that is bound to draw more followers and bring us peace and freedom. As it did then, so it can now. Does that reflect our own Christianity?

God Bless, Fr. Paul.

ISOLATED DUE TO CORONAVIRUS - HOW TO OBTAIN HELP

The source of your support depends on which category of 'shielding' you fall into.

Category 1 - you have been contacted by the NHS and told to remain at home for 12 weeks. You are being supported directly from the government. If you were not contacted by the NHS and told this then you do not fall into this category.

Category 2 - anyone over the age of 70, plus anyone under the age of 70 with certain serious health conditions plus pregnant women - you are being supported by Essex County Council through their Essex Welfare Service. Please contact them on 0300 303 9988.

Category 3 - Everyone else.

You are supported by the new helpline set up by Rochford District Council in partnership with local faith groups, churches and voluntary organisations. If you have no friends or family close by and you need support during this crisis, or are feeling isolated, please call 01268 779999.

NEW YEAR, NEW JOB? BEWARE FAKE RECRUITMENT ADVERTS

As the impact of the pandemic starts to take its toll, many residents may find themselves having to look for a new job, and criminals are taking advantage of the high numbers of people now flooding the job market.

There are a four main types of recruitment scam including:

- Advance-Fee Scams—the 'recruiters' ask for upfront fees including security or police checks, immigration services for overseas jobs, and training programmes.
- Phone Scams—job seekers are asked to call a number and are kept on hold or subjected to a lengthy interview whilst unwitting paying a premium rate number
- Bank Details—fake recruiters ask for bank details claiming they need to register the victim on their payroll, but the information is used to steal money from the account
- Other Crimes—some fraudsters will manipulate jobseekers into committing crimes on their behalf whilst believing themselves to be working a legitimate job. For example, rather than 'trading' funds, jobseekers could actually be money laundering.

WARNING SIGNS

- Poor spelling and grammar in the job advert, forms or documents
- Use of generic email addresses such as Yahoo or Hotmail instead of a corporate email address
- The 'employer' is adamant that they should make all the arrangements for you, including travel and accommodation

I'm looking for a job, how can I protect myself?

The most obvious, yet effective way of protecting yourself from recruitment scams is simple: Do you research.

- Make sure you have researched the company thoroughly before sharing any personal details such as date of birth, passport, National Insurance Number, driving license or bank details.

If you or someone you know is vulnerable and has been a victim of fraud, please call Essex Police on 101

FAKE NHS VACCINE TEXT WARNING

Another fraudulent text message is circulating claiming to be from the NHS, encouraging people to 'apply' for their COVID vaccine.

The text message contains a link that takes recipients to a very convincing website which proceeds to ask for personal and payment details.

This should be an immediate red flag, along with bad grammar and spelling mistakes, one of which can be seen highlighted in the images below.

Remember: the COVID-19 is free via the NHS only.

It is not possible to purchase the vaccine or obtain via other methods.

NHS: We have identified that you are eligible to apply for your vaccine. For more information and to apply, follow here :

Read before applying

Please take the necessary time to read over our information on the vaccine. It is important your choice is informed as some parties may not be recommended to take the vaccine currently.

The coronavirus (COVID-19) vaccine is safe and effective. It gives you the best protection against coronavirus.

Who can get the COVID-19

NHS Menu Q

We will now ask some questions

We'll ask for some information about you, including your:

- Name
- Date of birth
- Address
- A payment card (to check billing)
- Proof of address

We ask this so we can:

- Get the right mix of different people taking the vaccine
- Confirm identity
- Confirm ownership of address

READINGS AT MASS – 3rd Sunday of the Year

First reading – Jonah 3:1-5,10

The people of Nineveh renounce their evil behaviour

The word of the Lord was addressed to Jonah: 'Up!' he said 'Go to Nineveh, the great city, and preach to them as I told you to.' Jonah set out and went to Nineveh in obedience to the word of the Lord. Now Nineveh was a city great beyond compare: it took three days to cross it. Jonah went on into the city, making a day's journey. He preached in these words, 'Only forty days more and Nineveh is going to be destroyed.' And the people of Nineveh believed in God; they proclaimed a fast and put on sackcloth, from the greatest to the least. God saw their efforts to renounce their evil behaviour, and God relented: he did not inflict on them the disaster which he had threatened.

Psalm 24

Lord, make me know your ways.

1. Lord, make me know your ways.
Lord, teach me your paths.
Make me walk in your truth, and teach me;
for you are God my saviour. (R.)
 2. Remember your mercy, Lord,
and the love you have shown from of old
In your love remember me,
because of your goodness, O Lord. (R.)
 3. The Lord is good and upright.
He shows the path to those who stray,
he guides the humble in the right path;
he teaches his way to the poor. (R.)

Second reading – 1 Corinthians 7:29-31

The world as we know it is passing away

Brothers: our time is growing short. Those who have wives should live as though they had none, and those who mourn should live as though they had nothing to mourn for; those who are enjoying life should live as though there were nothing to laugh about; those whose life is buying things should live as though they had nothing of their own; and those who have to deal with the world should not become engrossed in it. I say this because the world as we know it is passing away.

Alleluia, alleluia!

The kingdom of God is close at hand:
repent, and believe the Good News.
Alleluia!

Gospel - Mark 1:14-20

I will make you into fishers of men

After John had been arrested, Jesus went into Galilee. There he proclaimed the Good News from God. 'The time has come' he said 'and the kingdom of God is close at hand. Repent, and believe the Good News.'

As he was walking along by the Sea of Galilee he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net in the lake – for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, 'Follow me and I will make you into fishers of men.' And at once they left their nets and followed him.

Going on a little further, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John; they too were in their boat, mending their nets. He called them at once and, leaving their father Zebedee in the boat with the men he employed, they went after him.
