

OUR LADY OF RANSOM

4th Sunday of Lent – Year B –
Divine Office Wk 4 – 13th/14th March 2021

Cancer in children. Eleven year old Rosie struggled enormously. Yes, she cried. She knew pain big time. And, yes, she wrestled with moments of profound fear. But she never gave up. Propped up in bed, she wore a head scarf. Dr. Roger, her doctor, had been questioning his faith. Until he met Rosie. Knowing she was exhausted by two years of treatments, chemotherapy and injections, he decided to question her as compassionately as possible. What does death represent for you, sweetheart?, he asked. She replied - when we are little, we go to sleep in our parents' bed, maybe because we're afraid, but the next morning, we wake up in our own beds. And we're OK. Correct? 'Yes', Dr. Roger replied. That's what it's like; one day I will go to sleep, and my Father will come for me. I will wake up in His house, in my true life. I will wake up to be with Him. Holding back the tears, Dr Roger was stunned. And my mum will miss me, she continued. Why? Because missing someone is the love that remains. True story.

Wow! Dr. Roger challenges anyone to give a better, more direct, and simpler definition for love, God, heaven and after-life. He says his faith was restored - big time, his life improved, and his values re-prioritised. All because of a sick, eleven year-old girl, who sadly lost her battle a little later. His angel taught him so much.

We have to be pretty hard-hearted not to have our lives deeply impacted and improved with faith restored by such an experience. Why can't people who follow Christ simply get this? We have so many agendas and obstacles in our way. So weighed down by them. Yet Jesus comes not to condemn, yet so many feel condemned, and trapped by these very agendas. He comes to save us, to save us often from those very agendas. If followers of Jesus really, really got this, our world would be a better place. But we don't. We feel condemned, and so condemn one another, through our gossip, fear, criticism and judgement of one another. It's all so unnecessary, if we simply focussed on Our Lord's real teachings of letting go.

Letting go of all these trappings that we get so obsessed with will restore our dignity. Do these agendas really matter in the long run? Letting go, Christ's message makes all the more sense, following him becomes totally logical, and we find we truly believe in him and are free. Now our dignity is totally restored - profound joy!

Possible? Or, like Dr. Roger, must we need an example like Rosie to shake us to the core?

God Bless, Fr. Paul.

Holiday fraud warning

Action Fraud warning as holiday bookings surge after lockdown exit plans announced.

Action Fraud and ABTA, The Travel Association, are reminding the public to think twice before handing over their money and personal information when booking holidays this year.

What is holiday fraud?

Holiday fraud can vary from fake accommodation listings that don't actually exist, to "too good to be true" offers with flights being particularly targeted. Criminals can approach you over the phone, via text, email and social media, offering incredibly cheap deals to tempt you into booking a holiday with them. In reality, the holiday you've booked, or parts of it, doesn't exist at all.

Before you buy:

- Do your research—make sure you've read plenty of reviews and have checked that the company is an ABTA member
- Pay Safe—use a credit card where possible and avoid paying into bank accounts
- If it's too good to be true, it usually is!

If you or someone you know is vulnerable and has been a victim of fraud, please call Essex Police on 101
Report fraud or attempted fraud by contacting Action Fraud at actionfraud.police.uk or call 0300 123 2040

READINGS AT MASS – 4th Sunday of Lent

First reading – 2 Chronicles 36:14-16,19-23

God's wrath and mercy are revealed in the exile and release of his people

All the heads of the priesthood, and the people too, added infidelity to infidelity, copying all the shameful practices of the nations and defiling the Temple that the Lord had consecrated for himself in Jerusalem. The Lord, the God of their ancestors, tirelessly sent them messenger after messenger, since he wished to spare his people and his house. But they ridiculed the messengers of God, they despised his words, they laughed at his prophets, until at last the wrath of the Lord rose so high against his people that there was no further remedy.

Their enemies burned down the Temple of God, demolished the walls of Jerusalem, set fire to all its palaces, and destroyed everything of value in it. The survivors were deported by Nebuchadnezzar to Babylon; they were to serve him and his sons until the kingdom of Persia came to power. This is how the word of the Lord was fulfilled that he spoke through Jeremiah, 'Until this land has enjoyed its sabbath rest, until seventy years have gone by, it will keep sabbath throughout the days of its desolation.'

And in the first year of Cyrus king of Persia, to fulfil the word of the Lord that was spoken through Jeremiah, the Lord roused the spirit of Cyrus king of Persia to issue a proclamation and to have it publicly displayed throughout his kingdom: 'Thus speaks Cyrus king of Persia, "The Lord, the God of heaven, has given me all the kingdoms of the earth; he has ordered me to build him a Temple in Jerusalem, in Judah. Whoever there is among you of all his people, may his God be with him! Let him go up."'

Psalm 136

O let my tongue cleave to my mouth if I remember you not!

1. By the rivers of Babylon there we sat and wept, remembering Zion;
on the poplars that grew there we hung up our harps (R.)
 2. For it was there that they asked us, our captors, for songs, our oppressors, for joy,
"Sing to us," they said, "one of Zion's songs." (R.)
 3. O how could we sing the song of the Lord on alien soil?
If I forget you, Jerusalem, Let my right hand wither. (R.)
 4. O let my tongue cleave to my mouth if I remember you not, if I prize not Jerusalem above all my joys!

Second reading – Ephesians 2:4-10

You have been saved through grace

God loved us with so much love that he was generous with his mercy: when we were dead through our sins, he brought us to life with Christ – it is through grace that you have been saved – and raised us up with him and gave us a place with him in heaven, in Christ Jesus.

This was to show for all ages to come, through his goodness towards us in Christ Jesus, how infinitely rich he is in grace. Because it is by grace that you have been saved, through faith; not by anything of your own, but by a gift from God; not by anything that you have done, so that nobody can claim the credit. We are God's work of art, created in Christ Jesus to live the good life as from the beginning he had meant us to live it.

Glory and praise to you, O Christ!

God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son:
everyone who believes in him has eternal life.

Glory and praise to you, O Christ!

Gospel - John 3:14-21

God sent his Son so that through him the world might be saved

Jesus said to Nicodemus: 'The Son of Man must be lifted up as Moses lifted up the serpent in the desert, so that everyone who believes may have eternal life in him. Yes, God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him may not be lost but may have eternal life. For God sent his Son into the world not to condemn the world, but so that through him the world might be saved. No one who believes in him will be condemned; but whoever refuses to believe is condemned already, because he has refused to believe in the name of God's only Son. On these grounds is sentence pronounced: that though the light has come into the world men have shown they prefer darkness to the light because their deeds were evil. And indeed, everybody who does wrong hates the light and avoids it, for fear his actions should be exposed; but the man who lives by the truth comes out into the light, so that it may be plainly seen that what he does is done in God.'
