

OUR LADY OF RANSOM

2nd Sunday of Easter – Year B –
Divine Office Wk 2 – 10th /11th April 2021

He apparently hated Jesus, and his teachings. Why? Because Jesus taught the way of powerlessness, suffering, descent. The way of entering into, and not avoiding, suffering. And letting God transform it all. We call it Resurrection. So it was for Freidrich Neitsche, early twentieth century. He concluded, European civilisation must be strong and powerful so it can triumph, we must be Supermen! God is dead! Whilst we do not agree with his conclusions, Neitsche clearly understood Jesus. Hitler came soon after, followed Neitsche's teachings, the rest we know. All so, so dangerous, as history has taught us over and over again. Do we learn?

Philosophers with their 'ideas' about humanity. Clever and intelligent. But Jesus is so different. He is calling us to enter into the darkness of our sufferings, and other people's, so transformation can happen. Not avoid or go beyond, but into.

Maybe 'doubting Thomas' was trying to resolve everything in his head. Like a true philosopher. Putting fingers inside our Lord's wounds, flesh to flesh, is Thomas' way of feeling something of Our Lord's suffering for himself, entering into it, without clever ideas – it's then he becomes a true Apostle. He gets inside the pain. Now he really knows Jesus as his Lord and God – a commitment that flies right in the face of Caesar and the establishment - for which the punishment is death, treason. Such is Thomas' transformation, because he has entered into Our Lord's wounds. That's the call for all of us.

Jesus teaches that the only real power we can trust is in those who have experienced powerlessness – entered into it, learned from it, and found God right there. Found meaning and depth. Hence the cross. In our powerlessness, God can really use us, but not so if it is all about social climbing, status, success etc. No-one likes failure, descent. But that is where we find God. We all need one or two kind and wise friends to nurse us through when descent happens.

Where in life do we feel rejected, betrayed, hurt? That's where God is found. But we have to enter into it and allow transformation - resurrection to happen. Would you rather listen to someone who is "powerful", or someone whose power comes through experiencing powerlessness and failure and then won through?

God Bless, Fr. Paul.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION. Please note and read carefully..

1. Through lockdown, our children have been absolutely phenomenal in patiently waiting for a year in order to make their First Holy Communion. All credit to them and their families.
2. With this in mind, through May, June and July this year our children will be making their First Holy Communion incorporated into the 5.30pm or 9.30am weekend Masses, or both. There will be between 3 and 5 children making their First Holy Communion at these Masses, although not every weekend.
3. For this reason, I will celebrate an additional 8am Mass on Sundays, throughout May June and July, whether or not there are children making their First Holy Communion that weekend. This will be reviewed after July.
4. Please give careful thought about whether you would prefer to come to an 8am Mass, or one of the weekday Masses. Remember the obligation for Sunday Mass is still suspended.
5. Bear in mind, we have to be strict with Covid restrictions in place at the moment so spreading ourselves out over the other Masses is important, even if we don't 'normally attend' a certain Mass. Numbers of relatives/friends of the children who might attend is always an unknown quantity. Also be prepared that your usual place may be taken at a Mass you normally come to.
6. There will be a notice in the newsletter the weekend before if children are making their First Holy Communion at one of the 2 Masses the following weekend. There will be no First Holy Communions at the 8am Masses (or weekdays). To give you a heads up, there are 4 children due to make their First Holy Communion at the 5.30pm Saturday evening Mass on May 1st.

Thank you.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION CARDS AND GIFTS

A wonderful selection of cards and gifts are on display and for sale in the Bethany room which is accessible whenever the church is open for Mass.

Gift Catalogues are also available for people to browse and select further items provided they are ordered in good time and depending on availability.

If there is no-one there to help you, please leave payment in the Church wall box marked Repository (by the front door).

THANK YOU...

1. Dear Parishioners, Thank you so much for your kindness and generosity as so many of you sponsored me and my Lent challenge for Cafod.

It was exhausting walking more than 10,000 steps every day for forty days but I made it, and with your help I have raised just shy of £2,800. Many thanks again and I will remember you all in a special Easter prayer. Mia Fox (Fr Paul's sister).

2. The Knights of council 456 would like to thank all those who supported so generously their virtual walk to Rome. Five members walked a combined total of 533 miles. Parishioners from OLOR parish donated £480.00 and parishioners from Our Lady Of Good Counsel Wickford donated £220.00. We added to this the £120.00 from tickets sold for last years Easter Raffle which did not take place. Through your generosity the BEEF fund is enhanced by £820.00. Renewed thanks.

IMPORTANT NOTICE TO ALL DRIVERS ATTENDING MASS...

CONSIDERATION PLEASE!

Please park considerately when attending Mass and where possible use the car parks provided! Residents have been taking photographs of cars parked on the pavement outside the Church and blocking driveways up the hill and put the photos on Facebook which is giving the Parish a bad name. We understand that if this continues police action can be invoked. PLEASE be considerate and thoughtful. Is such thoughtless parking in the spirit of coming to Mass?

READINGS AT MASS – 2nd Sunday of Easter

First reading – Acts 4:32-35

The whole group of believers was united, heart and soul

The whole group of believers was united, heart and soul; no one claimed for his own use anything that he had, as everything they owned was held in common.

The apostles continued to testify to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus with great power, and they were all given great respect.

None of their members was ever in want, as all those who owned land or houses would sell them, and bring the money from them, to present it to the apostles; it was then distributed to any members who might be in need.

Psalm 117 – Give thanks to the Lord for he is good, for his love has no end.

Second reading – 1 John 5:1-6

Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ has already overcome the world

Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ has been begotten by God; and whoever loves the Father that begot him loves the child whom he begets. We can be sure that we love God's children if we love God himself and do what he has commanded us; this is what loving God is – keeping his commandments; and his commandments are not difficult, because anyone who has been begotten by God has already overcome the world; this is the victory over the world – our faith. Who can overcome the world? Only the man who believes that Jesus is the Son of God: Jesus Christ who came by water and blood, not with water only, but with water and blood; with the Spirit as another witness – since the Spirit is the truth.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Jesus said: 'You believe because you can see me.'

Happy are those who have not seen and yet believe.'

Alleluia!

Gospel - John 20:19-31

Eight days later, Jesus came again and stood among them

In the evening of that same day, the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you', and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you. 'As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.' After saying this he breathed on them and said: 'Receive the Holy Spirit. For those whose sins you forgive, they are forgiven; for those whose sins you retain, they are retained.' Thomas, called the Twin, who was one of the Twelve, was not with them when Jesus came. When the disciples said, 'We have seen the Lord', he answered, 'Unless I see the holes that the nails made in his hands and can put my finger into the holes they made, and unless I can put my hand into his side, I refuse to believe.' Eight days later the disciples were in the house again and Thomas was with them. The doors were closed, but Jesus came in and stood among them. 'Peace be with you' he said. Then he spoke to Thomas, 'Put your finger here; look, here are my hands. Give me your hand; put it into my side. Doubt no longer but believe.' Thomas replied, 'My Lord and my God!' Jesus said to him: 'You believe because you can see me. Happy are those who have not seen and yet believe.'

There were many other signs that Jesus worked and the disciples saw, but they are not recorded in this book. These are recorded so that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing this you may have life through his name.
