

OUR LADY OF RANSOM

2nd Sunday of the Year – Year B –
Divine Office Wk 2 – 16th / 17th January 2021

Abuse and slavery are acts that leave us outraged, disgusted and sick. Such degradation. How can this happen? Part of this revulsion we feel is because, to a greater or lesser degree, we are honouring our own bodies, our own selves.

In some societies, these filthy degrading acts become fairly normal. In Our Lord's day, in parts of the Roman Empire, such acts were quite normal. About four out of five people were slaves; women were considered the property of men; prostitution was a form of temple worship; and oppression and injustice towards the poor and outsider was a regular occurrence.

It is against this St. Paul is screaming – “we are the Temples of God.” His guidance and teaching on the body and fornication is not to be interpreted as some moralistic puritanical code, as it has often been traditionally so. Paul is saying that we all have an inherent dignity, so we have a right to demand and respect the human body. Respect our own bodies first, then we will respect others'. In this way, a woman can claim her own dignity and refuse to give her body away to any man who demanded it. Maybe all this is partly why early Christians admired virginity. Re-claim back that inherent dignity that God gave us at the very beginning - for all who have been used or abused.

St. Paul is not offering prohibitions, which if ignored, lead to guilt and no salvation. Rather, he demands that we respect and take responsibility for our bodies – a good thing. It's all positive, offering dignity, as opposed to some finger-pointing moralistic and puritanical message.

Some scholars say that this is partly why St. Paul's teaching gained such popularity and are a quarter of the New Testament. Paul does not finger-point; nothing moralistic or puritanical, no. But he does offer people the chance to discover that inherent God-given dignity already within. Once discovered, we find we are all equal. Once discovered, we learn to love ourselves and our bodies, so we naturally love, respect and give dignity to everyone else. Makes sense.

Are we in touch with that God-given dignity that St. Paul is teaching today?

God Bless, Fr. Paul.

PEACE SUNDAY is on 17 JANUARY and this year Pope Francis asks us to think about 'A Culture of Care as a Path to Peace'.

"How many resources," he says, "are spent on weaponry, especially nuclear weapons, that could be used for more significant priorities such as ensuring the safety of individuals, the promotion of peace and integral human development, the fight against poverty, and the provision of health care." Pope Francis calls on us to "strive daily, in concrete and practical ways, to form a community composed of brothers and sisters who accept and care for one another."

In this country we have an active Catholic peace movement in Pax Christi. Their website suggests many ways we can all promote peace in our daily lives. There are activities for families to do at home, including a 15-minute peace liturgy for young children. <https://paxchristi.org.uk/peace-sunday-2021/>

READINGS AT MASS – 2nd Sunday of the Year

First reading – 1 Samuel 3:3-10,19

'Speak, Lord, your servant is listening'

Samuel was lying in the sanctuary of the Lord, where the ark of God was, when the Lord called, 'Samuel! Samuel!' He answered, 'Here I am.' Then he ran to Eli and said, 'Here I am, since you called me.' Eli said, 'I did not call. Go back and lie down.' So he went and lay down. Once again the Lord called, 'Samuel! Samuel!' Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, 'Here I am, since you called me.' He replied, 'I did not call you, my son; go back and lie down.' Samuel had as yet no knowledge of the Lord and the word of the Lord had not yet been revealed to him. Once again the Lord called, the third time. He got up and went to Eli and said, 'Here I am, since you called me.' Eli then understood that it was the Lord who was calling the boy, and he said to Samuel, 'Go and lie down, and if someone calls say, "Speak, Lord, your servant is listening."' So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

The Lord then came and stood by, calling as he had done before, 'Samuel! Samuel!' Samuel answered, 'Speak, Lord, your servant is listening.'

Samuel grew up and the Lord was with him and let no word of his fall to the ground.

Psalm 39

Here I am Lord! I come to do your will.

1. I waited, I waited for the Lord,
and he stooped down to me;
he heard my cry.
He put a new song into my mouth,
praise of our God. (R.)
 2. You do not ask for sacrifice and offerings,
but an open ear.
You do not ask for holocaust and victim.
Instead, here am I. (R.)
 3. In the scroll of the book it stands written that I should do your will.
My God, I delight in your law
in the depth of my heart. (R.)
 4. Your justice I have proclaimed in the great assembly.
My lips I have not sealed;
you know it, O Lord. (R.)

Second reading - 1 Corinthians 6:13-15, 17-20

Do not sin against your own body

The body is not meant for fornication: it is for the Lord, and the Lord for the body. God, who raised the Lord from the dead, will by his power raise us up too.

You know, surely, that your bodies are members making up the body of Christ; do you think I can take parts of Christ's body and join them to the body of a prostitute? Never! But anyone who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with him.

Keep away from fornication. All the other sins are committed outside the body; but to fornicate is to sin against your own body. Your body, you know, is the temple of the Holy Spirit, who is in you since you received him from God. You are not your own property; you have been bought and paid for. That is why you should use your body for the glory of God.

Alleluia, alleluia!

Speak, Lord, your servant is listening:
you have the message of eternal life.

Alleluia!

Gospel - John 1:35-42

'We have found the Messiah'

As John stood with two of his disciples, Jesus passed, and John stared hard at him and said, 'Look, there is the lamb of God.' Hearing this, the two disciples followed Jesus. Jesus turned round, saw them following and said, 'What do you want?' They answered, 'Rabbi,' – which means Teacher – 'where do you live?' 'Come and see' he replied; so they went and saw where he lived, and stayed with him the rest of that day. It was about the tenth hour.

One of these two who became followers of Jesus after hearing what John had said was Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter. Early next morning, Andrew met his brother and said to him, 'We have found the Messiah' – which means the Christ – and he took Simon to Jesus. Jesus looked hard at him and said, 'You are Simon son of John; you are to be called Cephas' – meaning Rock.
