

OUR LADY OF RANSOM

Palm Sunday – Year B – Divine Office Wk 2 – 27th/28th March 2021

Typhus gripped young Annie in the concentration camp. “No point in struggling” her friends advised, “death comes to us all”. But her faith urged her to live.

Delirium, she wandered around the camp, tripping over dead bodies. Her strength fast fading, she noticed a large mound in the misty distance. She felt a strange sensation. Something in that hill became a symbol for life. If she could only reach it, she just might survive, her guts told her. She felt compelled. Crawling on her hands and knees, after long excruciating hours, and managing to stagger to the top, she had reached her destination. Tears rolled down her cheek. Warm, human, real tears. “Daddy” she called, “please help me, I just can’t go on.” Suddenly a warm and gentle hand caressed her just as she had known years before when going to bed. She recognised the warmth of her daddy’s comforting hands. Sobbing more loudly for help, daddy simply caressed her head as she remembered. No blessings, but a simple reply, “you will survive my darling, I still, and will always love you to bits, your liberation is close”.

Four days later the war was over. Annie recovered from the typhus and returned to see the mound. She learned that the mound was a huge mass grave. Thousands of victims were buried there, among whom was her father, who had died months before that awful night she agonised there. Annie won her battle with death, and had wept over her father’s grave.

Yaffa Eliach, Tales of the Holocaust (adapted).

Annie’s daddy was in total solidarity with her, so she was transformed. She found life. Our crucified God is in total solidarity with every aspect of our human and painful condition. He caresses and loves us even more when we scream for help - he knows. Jesus dies in solidarity, not for our sins, but with our sins, failures, mistakes, lies, weaknesses and absurdities – and transforms them all. God suffers in and with his creation – us. Are we open enough to allow this transformation in us?

That is our liberation. It is Jesus, the Lamb of God, “taking away the sin / failure / weakness / lies / absurdity of the world”. In a focussed moment of history, in Jesus of Nazareth, we see what is happening in all human history, and how God is transforming it. How is the crucified one transforming our souls? Do we find life through our faith in the crucified one?

God Bless, Fr. Paul.

I did not cover my face against insult: I know I shall not be shamed

Psalm 21

My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?

1. All who see me deride me. They curl their lips, they toss their heads.
“He trusted in the Lord, let him save him; let him release him if this is his friend.” (R.)
  2. Many dogs have surrounded me, a band of the wicked beset me,
They tear holes in my hands and my feet I can count every one of my bones. (R.)
  3. They divide my clothing among them. They cast lots for my robe,
O Lord, do not leave me alone, my strength, make haste to help me! (R.)
  4. I will tell of your name to my brethren and praise you where they are assembled
“You who fear the Lord give him praise; all sons of Jacob, give him glory. Revere him, Israel’s sons.” (R.)
