OUR LADY OF RANSOM

Fourteenth Sunday 3rd July 2022

Psalter Week 2

The "cracked pot" apologised. For two years the man carried two pots, each hanging on each end of a pole across his neck. One was cracked, one was perfect. The long walk from the stream to the house meant that the cracked pot arrived only half full. Ashamed of its imperfection, and feeling the man was not getting full value for his efforts, it apologised. Feeling sorry and compassionate for the cracked pot, the man asked the pot to look carefully at the path from the stream to the house. On the cracked pot's side of the path, there grew beautiful flowers and good vegetables. The other side was dry. The man assured the cracked pot that he was aware of its "flaw", and told the pot that every-day the cracked pot watered the seeds he had planted on his way back to the house, the flowers that grew beautifully decorated the house, and the vegetables were lovely to eat.

How often our 'crackedness', imperfections and vulnerabilities can be our strengths without us even realising it? So often, wounded, rejected, 'cracked' people have a better chance of seeing truth more clearly and have something real to say. They can feel an "outsider" - not part of the group or the system anymore. Whatever the reasons one may feel an outsider, such people recognise the selfishness and illusions going on inside the system — be it the system of religion, country, politics or whatever. The "insider", company-person, is too comfortable to see the self-serving greed operating within the system. It all serves his purpose, security, livelihood and promotions. So why would he want to change? What happens - he ignores this self-serving greed, and so it perpetuates.

Is this not why Jesus instructs the disciples to take nothing for the journey? Crazy? No. He is sending them into certain vulnerability, maybe rejection, maybe failure, where they have to rely on each other, on other people, and God. It's about relationship and truth. This is why Jesus made himself an outsider. So he could see authentic truth and right relationship — not as a 'company person'. Jesus sees truth as truth is. He wants the same for all of us. Have we felt an outsider? Felt lost? On the losing side? Part of a minority? Rejected? Vulnerable? Cracked? Like the cracked pot, this can often be the place of transformation. True wisdom emerges from what we do with this pain. Do our crucifixes remind us of this truth - Jesus' own transformative pain? And ours too?

God bless, Fr. Paul

Roe v Wade decision

As you have probably seen in the media, on Friday 24 June, the US Supreme Court struck down the Roe v Wade decision, returning the matter of abortion legislation to individual states.

There has been much misinformation spread online about the implications of this decision. Lord Alton has published an excellent piece that sets out the key facts on the decision: https://thecritic.co.uk/reversing-a-tragic-half-century-of-lost-lives/
