

OUR LADY OF RANSOM

22nd Sunday Year C 28th August 2022 Psalter Week 2

It's the wedding reception. We scrutinize the guest list and table plan. Where am I sitting? Who's next to me? Dear God, I hope I am not sitting with....! Is the table near the top table? Who else have they invited? Oh no!, not them! Oh, he's okay. So it goes on. Oh, the daft questions –the head spins...

Jesus uses these kind of celebrations, dinners together as wonderful visual aids and sermons to make his points. Does it matter who we sit next to? Must we feel important? For Jesus, the table is a place of fellowship and communion. There is no fellowship when we worry about these questions. Last week I mentioned 'subversive wisdom' as opposed to conventional wisdom. Now we see Jesus subverting the usual conventions and social customs to the annoyance of those in charge, those who are apparently important, the politically correct. Jesus is redefining social order by doing things differently, subverting the usual customs.

Whom do you invite to share your meal with you? Who can be part of our faith community? Is there, or must there be an 'in' group, and an 'out' group? Can you invite the 'outsiders' (the apparent 'out' group) – I think we have a pretty good idea who may be outsiders in our communities today? In other words, if you really are part of God's family, the bigger picture, you will forget the world's status symbols and need for social importance. Such status symbols and human hierarchies start to mean nothing as they mean nothing to God. Does it matter where your table is in relation to the top table? Or who you're sitting next to? What matters is our desire to be in communion, our simple common humanity.

Hence our 'Holy Communion' at Mass. Our Holy Communion becomes a lie if we are all about 'in groups' and 'out groups', who's up or who's down and so on. In that scenario, there is no real communion acted out in our lives for which Holy Communion is the beautiful and ultimate sacramental sign.

At social gatherings, can we let go of being concerned about the whos and wheres? Would we dare invite the outsider, and those who cannot repay us in kind? Demanding, but it really is the stuff of living heaven here on earth.

God Bless, Fr. Paul

What is Mental Health First Aid?

Mental Health First Aid (MHFA) is an internationally recognised training course which teaches people how to spot the signs and symptoms of mental ill health and provide help on a first aid basis.

MHFA England training won't teach you to be a therapist, but just like physical first aid, it will teach you to listen, reassure and respond, even in a crisis.

Adult MHFA England courses are for everyone aged 16 upwards. Every MHFA England course is delivered by a quality assured Instructor Member who has attended our Instructor Training programme accredited by the Royal Society for Public Health, and is trained to keep people safe and supported while they learn.

What will I learn?

Learning takes place through a mix of group activities, presentations and discussions. What you learn will depend on the length of course you attend:

Two Day - Mental Health First Aiders

A practical skills and awareness course designed to give you:

- A deeper understanding of mental health and the factors that can affect people's wellbeing, including your own
- Practical skills to spot the triggers and signs of mental health issues
- Confidence to step in, reassure and support a person in distress
- Enhanced interpersonal skills such as non-judgemental listening
- Knowledge to help someone recover their health by guiding them to appropriate support

How will attending an MHFA England course help?

Research and evaluation shows that taking part in an MHFA England course:

- Raises awareness and mental health literacy
- Reduces stigma around mental ill health
- Boosts knowledge and confidence in dealing with mental health issues
- Promotes early intervention which enables recovery
