

OUR LADY OF RANSOM

The Assumption of Our Lady 14th August 2022

Psalter Week 4

I was told off. Street Bible-thumpers. Why? Because I was going to Lourdes. Charming!! They expressed concern because they felt many Catholics put Mary before Jesus. Some certainly 'appear' to in the way they pray, so I kind of understood their point, and, for them, Lourdes was a typical place where this happens. But are they aware of how extraordinary the Mother of God really is?

So what is it about this lady, Mary of Nazareth, the Blessed Virgin, Our Lady, that we, Catholics hold in such esteem and love? Too many to go into all of them here, so let's look at an important few.

She is clearly a prophetess of the highest calibre and quite a radical revolutionary in her own way as we see in today's Gospel. The Angel Gabriel incident, we call the Annunciation shows her to be a listener, a contemplative in prayer. Today's visitation shows her to be a woman of action, totally self-confident and self-possessed, yet knows God is in charge leading the way. And the extraordinary prayer we hear today called the Magnificat, shows her to be a prophetess second to none. What does she prophesy?

She prophesies 4 freedoms. 1) Religious freedom, 'his mercy reaches from age to age', God's love is available to everyone. Religiously bigoted people may not like this. 2) Social freedom, 'routing the proud of heart', God doesn't respect class or status, yet we can so easily think of ourselves as better than another because of title, status or money. 3) Political freedom, 'pulling the mighty from their thrones, raising the lowly', does this suggest Our Lady has communist tendencies? Equality for all? Is that our God? And, 4) economic freedom, 'filling the hungry with good things, sending the rich away empty'. God is always on the side of the victim, especially victims of war and evil. That kind of God pleases no-one who has, or looks for worldly power, control and domination.

So Mary is a woman of the world, yet completely open to be filled with grace...she is full of grace. She struggles, yet lets no personal plans and needs get in the way between herself, God, and his love. So she is empty enough of this world's needs so as to be filled with God's grace. Hence we pray Hail Mary, full of grace....All this, and so much more, allows her Assumption and our esteem and love for her to make sense. All we can do is follow her example and know the same awaits us all.

God Bless, Fr. Paul

BIKE FOR LEPROSY IN SUPPORT OF THE PEOPLE LIVING AT MUTEMWA LEPROSY CARE CENTRE IN ZIMBABWE

A charity bicycle ride will take place this August in support of the people living with leprosy at Mutemwa Leprosy Care Centre where John Bradburne (the next potential English Saint) cared for them.

Alex Macpherson and John Paynter, teachers based in Surrey and Bristol who are supporters of the John Bradburne Memorial Society, are embarking on a sponsored 600 mile bike ride from Bristol to Liverpool along the Welsh Coast in August. They will be raising awareness about leprosy and support of the people living at Mutemwa.

The John Bradburne Memorial Society was founded as a charity in 1995 in honour of its late warden, John Bradburne who spent the last 10 years of his life caring for those living with leprosy in Zimbabwe.

The society continues to support the Mutemwa Care Centre, whilst also spreading information about Bradburne's Sainthood life and prolific poetry writing. The donations JBMS receives goes towards the centre's running expenses, salaries of workers, food, water and medicine.

John Bradburne was born at Skirwith in Cumbria on June 14, 1921 and was the son of an Anglican vicar. He served with the Gurkhas and Chindits in the Second World War and after a conversion experience in Malaya, he became a Catholic in 1947.

After many years wandering England, Italy and the Middle East, he finally found his calling as a lay Franciscan missionary in Zimbabwe and he devoted the latter part of his life to helping forgotten leprosy patients at the Mutemwa Leprosy Care Centre.

He refused to leave the settlement during the Zimbabwean civil war and was abducted and shot dead on September 5, 1979.

Since Bradburne's death, the settlement has become a major pilgrimage centre, with thousands gathering for Mass each year on the anniversary of his death.

In 2019, the Congregation for the Causes of Saints in Rome formally began the cause of John Bradburne's beatification.

Bradburne is also in the Guinness Book of Records as the most prolific poet ever, having written in verse throughout his life.

"John has been nominated for sainthood because of his amazing selfless work at Mutemwa with leprosy patients" Kate Macpherson, secretary of the John Bradburne Memorial Society. "John was the pilgrim who eventually found the meaning of his life not in the solitude he had long searched for, but in living alongside, and trying his best to achieve justice so that people living with leprosy – amongst the world's most marginalised people of his day, like the migrants and asylum seekers of our world today – could, like us, live enriching and meaningful lives. And praising God as he did."

The Ride for Leprosy will start in Bristol on the 12th August, cycling along the Welsh Coast and finally finishing in Liverpool on the 19th August.
