OUR LADY OF RANSOM

7th July 2024 Fourteenth Sunday of the Year

Psalter Week 2

And still I am waiting...Waiting to find, or for someone to tell me they have seen a church, statue, image, or whatever, called "Christ the Prophet". Can anyone help? Yes, Christ...the King, ..High Priest, ..the Lord, ..the Redeemer (you name them), but never 'the Prophet'. Maybe the world still isn't ready for Christ the Prophet. If not, why not?

Because prophets speak truth to power. And that upsets. But then truth can hurt. Disturbing the comfortable and comforting the disturbed. Upsetting the status quo. People who use this gift of prophecy are often rejected. We see why so many prophets are murdered, in Scriptures, in the past and present day. They become a nuisance and especially a big threat to people in power enjoying big comforts. But those largely living on the margins of society often get it and are comforted.

The "for-telling" of the future is only because they have a deep insight and wisdom into what is happening now. This is the way reality works, things unfold as they do. There is a universal pattern. If we continue on this road, the future has a certain inevitability, not always obvious to everyone, but the prophets see it. It's descriptive, although it can sound threatening.

Now imagine all this coming from a local tradesman. And someone you know and love. Even more upsetting. Ideas challenged, behaviours criticised, basic understandings turned inside out. Who really welcomes change? Who likes being challenged and corrected? Who really wants a new order? All this especially from a local tradesman we've all known for years. Don't we expect someone we know and love to accept and condone what we already do?

Jesus the carpenter. Only a carpenter, surely! No. His prophecies are now producing feelings of threat. But Jesus and all prophets prophesy for everyone's benefit. Maybe no pain, no gain. And Jesus too is executed as a nuisance, a pain.

Notice how they mock Jesus. "Son of Mary", Mary - a woman. In other words, son of a second class citizen – as understood in those days. Women were seen as second class citizens then. They say this because they feel threatened. So they poke fun at Him. Jesus Christ – the Prophet. Yes, prophets can irritate. Who disturbs or provokes us? Who annoyingly shows us the truth that we do not really want to see? Could the Holy Spirit be working through them? What if we were brutally honest? Might they be helping us to see differently – for the better? How do we respond?

2nd Reading 2 Corinthians 12: 7-10

The Daughters of Divine Love is an International Congregation founded in Nigeria in 1969 and a member of the Missionary Sisters of England and Wales. They educate, care for, and add value to the lives of the less privileged in society. Their charity home in Nigeria and school for indigent children in Kenya provide care and education for orphans, motherless, abandoned children, street children/teenagers, and children with special needs/HIV. Their aim is always to serve the less privileged and the marginalized in society. In everything that they do, the love of Christ impels them to respond to the cry of the poor and the vulnerable with concrete actions.

Following the guidelines of the Bishops of England and Wales, the appeal includes a short reflection on the liturgy of the day. This is followed by a reference to the work of the Missionary Sisters and also to the vocation of being a missionary that belongs to us all by virtue of our Baptism and the implications of that.

An appeal will be held in our Parish next weekend the 13th /14th July.
