OUR LADY OF RANSOM

23rd March 2025

3rd Sunday of Lent (C)

Psalter Week 3

“Don’t talk religion and politics”, is often said. I guess because these two areas go deep can be sensitive issues, finding words to express these depths is difficult, the subjects can become divisive, and maybe you’re with friends and had a few! Religion and politics are one single entity if today’s well known first reading bears truth.

Moses has a “big” experience, a “God experience” – the burning bush. Immediately from this revelation of who God is, from this religious encounter, this spiritual moment, God gives Moses a command which has social-political implications – to confront Pharaoh “let my people go”. Moses’ experience is not a private one. It becomes a foundational moment that gives birth to our Jewish-Christian heritage. And the work of the prophets, across all time, is to keep faith and politics together. Watch Jesus and his social-spiritual-political moves. Any true spiritual experience must have fairly immediate social/political implications. Politics may be seen as the public side of things, authentic spirituality and true religion urge the honest question of “why”. What are our true motivations? It needs prayer – prayerful self-examination. The inner, spiritual life.

When politics and the spiritual become separated, corruption ensues. It is bound to. It won’t matter which “political party” is in power, the same old problems re-emerge. Power games, deceit, individualism. When we are not honestly checking our motives, contemplatively and prayerfully allowing God in as part of the deal, we will do things for selfish interest. Without God, it’s all there is. It’s all we have. If the religious/spiritual part is not there – our actions become personal power games needing lies and deceit - so no healthy fruit emerges. God has been excluded.

The same is true for our church as an institution. Church dilemmas or broken politics – until we get back to re-connecting the spiritual and politics, ie. the Moses’ experience, by honestly, prayerfully checking out our motives (the spiritual stuff) – then expect wars, conflicts and deceit at all levels. Remember, re-ligion means to re-connect the two - the outer and inner life. Healthy change will only happen when we do what we do because we are continually and honestly checking ourselves out. Spirituality, our faith, might call it “purifying the soul”. Moses keeps checking himself out after the Burning Bush. When people in public life do the same, undoubtedly, an authentic political system will evolve.

There is still time....

URGENT PETITION: Assisted Suicide Bill Threatens Vulnerable People

Care Not Killing (CNK) has launched a PETITION calling on MPs to reject proposals for an assisted suicide law in England and Wales.

In April (or possibly May), MPs will again vote on the Terminally Ill Adults (End of Life) Bill. Despite a disappointing initial vote of 330–275 in favour, there is now a realistic chance the Bill can be defeated.

The Independent newspaper reports that 142 MPs who initially backed the Bill could withdraw their support (citing safeguarding concerns). NOW is the time for Catholics to make their voices heard.

If assisted suicide becomes law in England & Wales:

1. Hospice [and palliative care] provision will be undermined
2. Suicide prevention efforts will be weakened
3. Elderly and disabled people will feel pressure to take their own lives*

In the US state of Oregon, almost half of those who have died by assisted suicide cited fear of being a burden on their families or carers as a reason for choosing to die.*

Only 1-in-3 people cite fear of pain.

The state ought to support the provision of care for those at the end of life, not their deliberate killing.

WAYS TO SIGN:

- ❖ petition sheet at your Church
- ❖ use this QR code on your phone
