OUR LADY OF RANSOM

20th April 2025 Easter Sunday of Our Lord's Resurrection (C) Psalter Week 1

Are you a defiant person? Resurrection is an act of defiance. A defiant answer from God that says violence will not win, peace will. Hatred will not win, love will. Lies will not win, truth will. Death will not win, life will. Love will conquer death. Can we accept this? Do we really really believe in this? Such transformations need to be patiently waited for - we need to create a space within for them to happen. Or it is a cheap and shallow daydream.

Christianity pivots on Resurrection. Jesus blazes a trail, consciously walks through the mystery of hatred, lies, violence, fear and death – and asks us to consciously follow, not just offer cheap worship. He transforms the lot. His death exposes lies, violence, and hatred Dare we follow? So we walk through this mystery ourselves. If we don't, it all remains “pretty rituals”, “pathetic pious platitudes” with “rarified beliefs” all of which has nothing to do with the real nitty-gritty of everyday living – walking the walk.

Death and Resurrection. It's the universal pattern. Jesus personifies this pattern in Himself as a Human. Everything dies, everything is renewed, transformed. Christianity calls this the 'Paschal Mystery' (St. Augustine). We can only know this truth for ourselves as a lived experience. Having to walk the walk for ourselves. Following Our Lord as we walk this walk. Many walk part of the walk, and then the going gets tough and faith is sorely tested....

So we must walk the journey ourselves, following Jesus all the way, not just some heady agreement with it, or talking the talk – that gets us nowhere. Walking the walk, following all the way leads to our lives making sense, a future filled with hope, and we go forwards with our heads held high. It must be worth it.

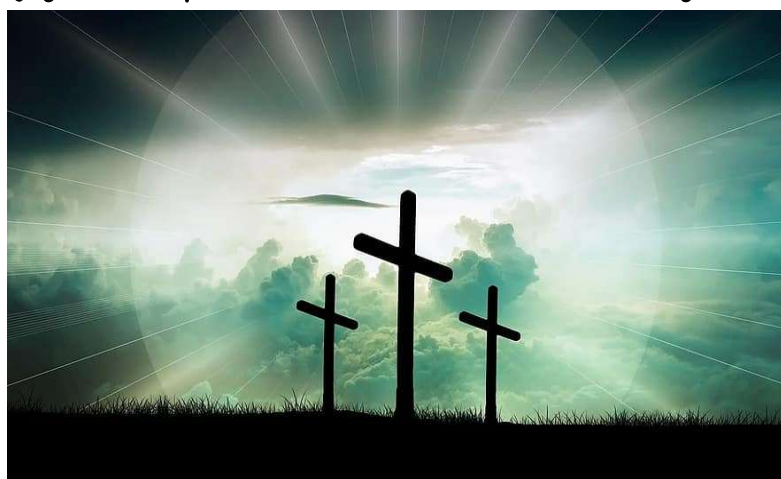

Wishing you all every blessing for a joyful and peaceful Easter. Please have a lovely break, do return safe and refreshed. Please stay well and safe.

School children's education is being affected because parents can't afford hygiene products and are too embarrassed to send their children to school. Some children are also experiencing similar embarrassment because they ARE being sent to school but in unwashed uniform.

Please consider donating these items, washing powder/liquid or feminine hygiene items to the Food Bank collection in the porch of our church. Thank you.

Caritas Social Action Network (CSAN) has recently launched a lived experience survey to better understand the impact of the two-child benefit cap on Catholic families in England and Wales and to explore how parishes are supporting families in need.

Earlier this month, we shared the survey with parishes across England and Wales, and we are now reaching out to key diocesan contacts to see if you would be open to sharing it across your networks and to encourage parishes to partake in the survey. The responses will contribute to a short report/briefing, and insights gathered will inform further advocacy work to support families affected by the cap, as well as other financial hardship.

You can find the survey here: <https://www.csan.org.uk/news/familysurvey/> and attached is a graphic that you are welcome to share with your contacts.

We would be very grateful if you could help us amplify this by sharing it with relevant contacts and parishes in your diocese. Please let me know if you have any questions or if there's anything else we can do to support its distribution.

Thank you for your time and support. Daisy Mae Vanderputt Senior Officer for Policy and Public Affairs
