

OUR LADY OF RANSOM

4th January 2026 2nd Sunday after Christmas Psalter Week 1

Bella Roma. Magnificent. I studied there for 6 years. Wonderful, but demanding. Academics, books, journals, ideas, theories – it goes on. Heads crammed with knowledge, all allowing us to sound clever. All good and important stuff – but isn't Christianity more?

Maybe years of working with people with various kinds of disabilities, plus mental health issues, and working in a prison more recently has enabled me toward to deeper understanding and appreciation of what Christianity really is.

It seems that to be a Christian, we need to have met someone who is already – “Christian”. To see Christ everywhere. In everyone. Possibly all based on personal experience. Christianity needs to be experienced for itself. Christ is passed on “personally” – not so much through books etc. To follow Christ is to have met someone who shines with a Christ-like freedom, a joy, an energy, a vitality – and let them rub off on you. Then you in turn, rub off on someone else, so faith is passed on. Caught, not taught.

This stuff cannot be theologized or sermonized. It is simply a way of living. Way bigger than Rome's heady academics. It's personal and will imply healthy and right relationships – it's never private.

So words and ideas can never be enough. St. John is very clear about the word becoming flesh. This is surely why the word became flesh - flesh implies relationships, anything personal, unity, solidarity, mercy, companionship, community – love. The nitty-gritty of everyday life. People to people. Do academics substitute for that?

Jesus came as the Christ, the Son of God, to dwell amongst us, so as we could follow him, his humanity, to catch on to his inner attitudes and teachings and live them out. Not treat them as some kind of hypothesis or idea, and certainly not just to worship him. He dwelt amongst us so we could be like Him. Or we strip the whole essence of Christmas of all its power and meaning. Talk about keeping Christ “out” of Christmas! We are called to be like Jesus Christ as best as we can. Do others catch on to our Christ-like ways? Are we making sure Christ stays in Christmas through our attitudes and behaviours? How do others see us?

Do we have, or know anyone with Christ-like ways? Do we have the humility to let their Christianity catch on in us? Or does the need to be clever and smart get in the way? Does pride interfere? To let it genuinely catch on, transforms ours, and others' lives forever. Worth it?

Children's Liturgy

Children's Liturgy at 10am mass, for children aged 3 years old to school year 6)

There are 2 groups - preschool to school year 2, and school years 3-6).

Parents are welcome to settle the youngest children coming for the first few times, aiming towards them coming independently.

Children do not need to bring anything to the session- any materials needed will be provided. (If your child has special needs, please make leaders aware beforehand - we welcome everyone!

Schoolchildren's education is being affected because parents can't afford hygiene products and are too embarrassed to send their children to school. Some children are also experiencing similar embarrassment because they ARE being sent to school but in unwashed uniform.

Please consider donating these items, washing powder/liquid or feminine hygiene items to the Food Bank collection in the porch of our church. Thank you.

HARP- We are very short of items that we give to people who use our services. Here is the list:

Sleeping bags; Hand warmer; Foil blanket, take away cups; Ladies small underwear

Men's boxers small and medium; Leggings; Socks; Deodorants.

If you can help, please do let us know, we are happy to come and collect the items or you can donate to the Bradbury Centre 103-107 York Road, Southend-On-Sea, SS1 2DL.

Thank you for all your support.
