24th May 2026

Pentecost (A)

Psalter Week 1

Sickness ravaged his body. Could he complete the work he had started? So, it was for Giacomo Puccini in the 1920s. He had accomplished great works such as Madama Butterfly, Tosca and La Bohème. Now he had begun a new work called Turandot. He so wanted to finish this work, but in case he couldn't, he announced to his students that his will was that they should finish his work should he die. Sadly, he did die before he finished. His devoted students dutifully assembled his notes, manuscripts and studied them in detail. They proceeded to finish his work.

Two years later Turandot was performed at 'La Scala Opera House' in Milan. His prize pupil, Arturo Toscanini, conducted the work. When the opera reached the end that Puccini had written himself, Toscanini stopped the music, put down the baton, and spoke to a hushed audience. With tears in his eyes, he announced that it was from this point in the opera that the students completed the work. He confidently picked up the baton, and the opera concluded to thunderous applause with the opera assuming a permanent place in the annals of Puccini's great works.

His students were imbued with the master's spirit. His students had given themselves devotedly to him, such that they knew what to do with each note, each voice, each instrument, each drama. They had grafted themselves onto him.

We too can-do great and even better things when we are in touch with the Spirit. Much like the disciples we hear about today, we may feel frightened, unsure, lack confidence, do not feel up to it. We can so doubt ourselves. Being in touch with Our Lord's Spirit lets us feel up to the task, allows us to be 'on fire' as we see in the disciples and do amazing things even when we're unsure or frightened. One minute the disciples were afraid, and the next, moment, bold and courageous people. One minute, they were unsure, the next, very sure. The clue: they were a true community at prayer. Wherever the gaps are in our lives, the Holy Spirit will fill. But like Puccini's students, as with Our Lord's disciples, we need to be grafted to Our Lord, to sense His spirit imbuing each of us, prayer that encourages us to connect with His spirit living within. Pentecost is the affirmation of this great and wonderful truth.

Despite our uncertainties and fears, let's amaze even ourselves, because we are in touch with this Holy Spirit living within?

Children's Liturgy

Children's Liturgy at 10am mass, for children aged 3 years old to school year 6)

There are 2 groups - preschool to school year 2, and school years 3-6).

Parents are welcome to settle the youngest children coming for the first few times, aiming towards them coming independently.

Children do not need to bring anything to the session- any materials needed will be provided. (If your child has special needs, please make leaders aware beforehand - we welcome everyone.

ORGANISTS, PIANISTS, We are really blessed to have a proper pipe organ in Our Lady of Ransom Church. But there are few parishioners who can play it. Let me know if you are one of the few. Also, if you are having piano lessons and can read music, even to a quite elementary level (AB Grade 4 perhaps) I would be pleased if you would contact me. I can give you some lessons (free of charge) and help you to learn to play the organ. Isobel Kennedy 07795 821705

CHILDREN'S CHOIR There seems to be a number of young people in our parish who love to sing. I am therefore starting up a choir for any children who are interested in singing and are prepared to learn to read music. We shall start by having a choir practice on Thursday 18th June at 6.30pm in the choir loft. The idea will be to join in the singing with the main choir at the 10am Mass. Primary school children would probably like to be accompanied by a parent, secondary school pupils can either join the main choir which rehearses in the choir loft at 7.30 to 8.30pm most Thursdays or attend the earlier rehearsal at 6.30pm. Whichever suits. Let me know if you are interested. I look forward to hearing from you. Isobel Kennedy 07795 821705

Schoolchildren's education is being affected because parents can't afford hygiene products and are too embarrassed to send their children to school. Some children are also experiencing similar embarrassment because they ARE being sent to school but in unwashed uniform.

Please consider donating these items, washing powder/liquid or feminine hygiene items to the Food Bank collection in the porch of our church. Thank you

Red Box 2025 THANK YOU!

In 2025 Our Lady of Ransom parish raised £1,573.10 through our Red Boxes and donations to Missio and the Mill Hill Missionaries. Thank You! Our missionary community here in Rayleigh is part of a worldwide network of people supporting missionaries overseas through prayer and financial assistance. Communities around the world rely on your support so they can continue to flourish. Visit missio.org.uk to find out more.

Due to bank closures, it is unfortunately increasingly difficult to bank cash and cheque donations. Additionally, we have fewer volunteers to collect our boxes. Red Boxes will continue to be collected and the easiest way to do this is by leaving your box in the sacristy or presbytery, and emptied boxes will then be left at the back of church for you to collect. If you are unable to do this, please contact me and I will be more than happy to collect from your home.

I would warmly encourage you to 'Think outside the box' if you would like to support Missio. Spring Mission Today booklets are at the back of church, and you will find information on the back cover of ways to give directly. Donations can be made by Direct Debit, or Bank Transfer Account Name: Missio Sort Code: 16-00-16 Account Number: 10824230 Reference: RB + your postcode. You can also give directly on their website, or via phone and text.

Please contact Katherine Abel: warren_katherine@hotmail.com or 07906844284 if you have any questions.
