

OUR LADY OF RANSOM

2nd August 2026 Eighteenth Week of the Year (A) Psalter Week 2

Do you like quizzes? Barn dances? Get-togethers? Many of us have been to such functions, whether it's parish or otherwise, and asked to bring food and drink to be shared with each other. It always amazes me how, at the end of the function, there is always food and drink leftover. Always.

As soon as we share, there is an abundance. Today's story of the feeding of the 5000 is no different, again, there are leftovers. People sharing whatever little they had. If this was a miracle (the scriptures do not say it was a miracle – it's as if they took it all in their stride), then the miracle was in Jesus' changing attitudes from a largely hard-hearted, self-centered people to one that shared and really thought of one another. From hard heartedness to soft hearts. Do we allow Our Lord to change or soften our hearts in this way?

No-one would have come to an event of this magnitude and not at least brought something to eat and drink, no matter how small or extravagant.

The theme of abundance runs through the Scriptures and our faith. It is all symbolic of God's over abundant and extravagant love and forgiveness for each of us. He loves and forgives us so much that there is even leftover love, so to speak. His love and forgiveness never stop. God's love is indiscriminately shared with everyone, as is His forgiveness. All we have to do is be open to it. So many people are closed as they just don't trust it, or they think they have to earn or merit it in some way. (Maybe connected with a capitalist society we live in, where everything must be earned or deserved in some way). His love and forgiveness are totally free. With God's totally free and totally unearned love and forgiveness there will always be left-over. The only difference between people is how much they are open and allow God's love to flow through them.

It seems that the more we share, the more there is an abundance. The less we share, what is already there, eventually shrivels, withers and dies. What a sense of true community our Lord is pushing for. And it all starts with the simple act of sharing.

True community starts when we share to the point we feel it. We give that little bit more to the point where, maybe, it hurts a little. And we genuinely do not want favours in return. And we don't feel compelled to return the favour. So, we see joy in both giving and receiving.

Of course, we too, must be receptive to others sharing with us. To be the one on the receiving end. This can of course, be less easy...now the need for some humility kicks in. Sharing leads to abundance, surplus, leftovers. Do we share to the point we feel it? Does our receiving from others who wish to share with us allow for true humility such that we receive graciously

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults Programme (RCIA)

All are welcome to come along to our Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults programme and learn more about what it means to be a Catholic Christian. Our Programme will be starting on Monday 14th September 2026 at 8pm in the Bethany Room.

Perhaps you are completely new to Christianity, or maybe you left the Church as a teenager and now want to return to the Catholic faith. Alternatively, you may just want to informally ask questions to deepen your understanding. Whatever your circumstances, you are welcome to come along and learn more about what it means to be a Catholic Christian. Please come along to find out more. You do not have to make any commitments at this point. However, if you are not part of the Catholic tradition, and you decide during the programme you would like to commit yourself to the Catholic faith, you may be received into the Catholic Church at Easter in April 2027.

Pope John Paul 2nd Hall Bookings –

For any Hall Booking requests, please contact the Parish Office by phone or email, Tuesday to Thursday, between 9.30 and 1pm. Thank you.

We have a small supply of aids currently. If you have any that you are happy to donate, please let us know by calling the Parish Office. Thank you.

Wednesday Coffee Morning

The next Wednesday Coffee morning will be in September. If you wish to help about once each month, we very much need you, so come along and make yourself known. We'd love to see you.

Please note there will be no Wednesday coffee mornings during August as the ladies who regularly bake and serve tea and coffee, (for which we are so grateful) are taking a well-earned break.

We look forward to seeing you again in September.

Sunday Coffee Morning -

If you are interested in running a coffee morning after Sunday 10am Mass, for a Charity of your choice, please inform the staff in the presbytery office. Thank you.

ORGANISTS, PIANISTS, We are really blessed to have a proper pipe organ in Our Lady of Ransom Church. But there are few parishioners who can play it. Let me know if you are one of the few. Also, if you are having piano lessons and can read music, even to a quite elementary level (AB Grade 4 perhaps) I would be pleased if you would contact me. I can give you some lessons (free of charge) and help you to learn to play the organ. Isobel Kennedy 07795 821705

CHILDREN'S CHOIR There seems to be a number of young people in our parish who love to sing. I am therefore starting up a choir for any children who are interested in singing and are prepared to learn to read music. The idea will be to join in the singing with the main choir at the 10am Mass. Please contact Isobel Kennedy on 07795 821705 for further information.

Schoolchildren's education is being affected because parents can't afford hygiene products and are too embarrassed to send their children to school. Some children are also experiencing similar embarrassment because they ARE being sent to school but in unwashed uniform.

Please consider donating these items, washing powder/liquid or feminine hygiene items to the Food Bank collection in the porch of our church. Thank you

HARP- We are very short of items that we give to people who use our services. Here is the list:

Sleeping bags; Hand warmer; Foil blanket, take away cups; Ladies small underwear

Men's boxers small and medium; Leggings; Socks; Deodorants.

If you can help, please do let us know, we are happy to come and collect the items or you can donate to the Bradbury Centre 103-107 York Road, Southend-On-Sea, SS1 2DL.

Thank you for all your support.

Magnifica Humanitas . Pope Leo has recently published Magnifica Humanitas, an encyclical letter on 'safeguarding the human person in the time of artificial intelligence'. It puts 'artificial intelligence' in the context of Catholic Social Teaching. Fr Hugh MacKenzie, chaplain at Westminster Cathedral, is an expert on AI. He will be giving a presentation on the topic on Saturday 26th September 2026 at the Catholic Church of Christ the Eternal High Priest in Gidea Park, beginning at 11 am. The event is in-person but is also available live-stream from www.whatgoodnews.org The talk will be of particular interest to our young people, with their IT competence.
