

OUR LADY OF RANSOM

6th September 2026 Twenty-Second Sunday of the Year (A) Psalter Week 3

“But Father, surely I don’t need to go to church to pray, I can pray at home.

Oh dear! Still, I today many people hold this very mistaken attitude. What happens if I just stay at home? Our private thoughts so easily drift into fantasy without us knowing it. Our prayer becomes unfocussed. We remain unchallenged, become spiritually withdrawn, spiritually not stretched, and unfulfilled.

Going to Church grounds us. We realise we are part of other peoples’ lives, they can take us beyond our private little cocooned selves, to fully appreciate that there is something wonderfully bigger going on. We begin to see ourselves as part of a wholeness of all God’s people – the Body of Christ. How can we do this if we just stay at home? A good community will be steadying, have a good rhythm, a routine and regularity that can be so calming. Our lives take on a fresh meaning, and purpose, because of other people and mutual needs. Together we reinforce and strengthen each other as Christ’s Body. Of course, arguments, fall-outs happen, breaking down community life. They need correction and reconciliation, which, when authentic, is so powerful. It strengthens and restores community life.

“Where two or three meet in my name, I am there with them” – two or more people equal community. Jesus is clearly pushing community involvement over the individual. The therapy of being part of church community life, with all its inherent wonderfulness and maybe, sometimes, its sillier moments, according to some studies, results in people largely being steadier, emotionally, healthier and less obsessed.

We see why gossip and tittle-tattle are so evil, they totally destroy community life and reputations. (By the way, most people who pride themselves on not being gossips are often the biggest. They just can’t, or dare not believe it of themselves. There is not enough honest self-reflection in their lives).

Who knows how much we help each other by our prayerful presence in community. It certainly happens. Can all this happen if we stay at home?

So, we see why going to church and trying to go weekly has its importance. Does our example encourage others to go to church and feel part of community?
