

OUR LADY OF RANSOM

8th November 2026 32nd Sunday. (Remembrance Day) Psalter Week 4

The film crew were filming. A seemingly wise old man approached the Director and said it would rain the following day. It did! A few days later he told them there would be a storm the following day. And there was. A few more weather predictions came true. The film crew accommodated his fore tellings. So, they wanted to hire the old man - but for two weeks he could not be found. Eventually he was found, and the director asked what had happened. The old man replied that his radio was broken, so no weather forecasts!!

Oops! Was he genuinely wise? He sounded so. Ten bridesmaids, five appeared wise, but had no oil, five really were wise. The door to the banquet (the Kingdom) is always open. All are invited. Those with the oil of truly dedicated lives will experience the Kingdom now. Others who think they know better, or only appear wise on the surface, like the old man, may well be greeted by 'I never knew you'. Pious people who appear holy and prayerful, yet without substance to their piety by way of dedicated service may be in for this shock. Why not be happy now, and experience the Kingdom now? Do we have the oil of dedicated service? Does Our Lord really know us?

Today we also honour, salute, thank, and pay tribute to those who have fallen in all wars. We remember and are inspired by their extraordinary bravery, heroism and martyrdoms. Our faith must be that they are in a very real way, alive, at peace, and with us. With us to inspire and give us fresh hope. Urging us, screaming at us, "stop, enough is enough". Their deaths remind us of the evils of war. Lives heroically sacrificed so we back here should learn a valuable lesson about these evils, angers, griefs and terrors war promotes. But do we? War and evil, its venom of bitterness, biting into our very depths, creates chaos, agony and turmoil. Wars raging into marriages, friendships and families down through the decades causing spiritual pandemonium. How long will the present wars today stretch into the future, causing agony, mayhem and chaos in people's lives, their marriages, their families? It goes on…From all victims of war, they call us to stop - surely peace is the only way. We must not only remember, but we must also learn. Do we?

Is war living out the Kingdom? Is there any oil of truth and wisdom in war?

We are called to be wise. Wise in so many ways. Wise to God's Kingdom here and now. Wise to peace, to truth, the virtues of the Gospel, lives dedicated to service in the name of His Gospel - and all that that service of the Gospel entails. To make sure Our Lord knows us through our committed service. The door to the banquet is open, do we think we know better, or are we wise enough to go in and be welcomed.
